

Attention! Get It! Keep It!

Did you know that 84% of respondents remembered the advertisers of the promotional products they received!

62% have done business with the advertiser on a promotional product after receiving the item!

*The average cost per impression of an advertising specialty item is $0.0004, as a result, marketers get a more favorable return on investment from advertising specialties than nearly any other popular advertising media!

SBF associates, inc. specializes in making your business look good.

What we can do for you & what you can refer to me:

- Improve employee morale
- reduce your absentee rates
- business gifts that meet your needs
- provide company clothes,
- expo & trade show incentives
- improve sales volume & the number of referrals & quality of your leads
- do your printing of forms, brochures & business cards, etc. so you are proud to hand them out
- graphic design help
- implement a safety program
- provide delivery at the speed of need
- items for corporate events
- print H/R handbooks
- you have a need to put your name on something we will make it happen
- we help you grow an already thriving enterprise
- we are the partner that you always wanted and couldn't find.

Founded in 1968, SBF associates, inc. is large enough to have an extensive list of partners and years of experience, yet small enough to remember that service and business ethics matter. Our customers come first and we see that each one receives the personal attention they deserve.

All the best to you and your business,

Doug Schauer

*Research provided by the Advertising Specialties Institute, copyright 2008, All rights reserved.

SBF associates, inc.

22278 Harsdale Drive, Farmington Hills, MI 48335 | p: 313.399.3700 f: 866.629.5744
DSchauer@SBFassociates.com | www.SBFassociates.com

Your source for custom imprinted marketing materials.